KILLING OF A MAN

It was Manslaughter Says the Coroner's Jury Yesterday.

DEATH FROM A KNIFE WOUND

Thomas to be Rearrested Today on the Charge of Manslaughter-An Unlawful Deed.

The inquest over the remains of James Johnson the colored inmate of the soldier's home, was concluded yesterday morning before Coroner Bradish. The only witness sworn yesterday was Dr. Best who concluded his post mortem Tuesday forenoon. The examining surgeon testified that the vital organs were found to be in a healthy condition and that death was doubtless caused from anemia or loss of blood from the wound inflicted. The jury

"We find that the said James Johnson came to his death at 5530 p. m. on March 13 from a wound inflicted upon his person by a knife in the hands of Peter Thomas on the evening of March 4, 1892, at the Michigan Soldiers' home." Thomas is in jail waiting an examination on a charge of committing an assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder and his case is on call before Justice Hydorn tomorrow morning. When he is brought into court he will be rear-rested on a charge of manulaughter.

NOT ACCORDING TO LAW.

An Insurance Company Escapes Payment of a Policy.

An important case was decided by Judge Grove in the circuit court yesterday, which involved an important law point. The case of Thomas M. Armstrong, Charles D. Armstrong, Andrew J. Armstrong, William L. Standish, Fred A. Bauerle, Leonheart Bauerle and Charles M. Fay, sgainst the Western Manufacturers' Insurance company of Chicago, Ill. The case was brought here on a transcript from Emmet county. The case, in brief, was that the L. Sauerle company of Petoskey, insured its buildings and machinery in the Manufacturers' Mutual Insurance company for $7500, paying for the policy $250. While the policy was still in force the buildings towered by it were burned. The insurance company refused to pay, having, The L. Bauerle company sued for the face of the policy. The case was started in the Emmet county circuit court. The insurance company thought it was not within the jurisdiction of the incuit court. By stipulation the case was taken to the United States court. but it was remanded back to the circuit burt for a hearing. The judge of the Emmat county circuit court was an interested party, which accounts for its saving been brought to this city. Iddge Grove yesterday rendered a judgment for the defendant for costs. He did this for the reason that four rears ago a law was passed in this state, prescribing the manner in which policies should be written and stipuisting that after 1889 any policy issued of a different nature would be null and roid. The policy issued by the Manuaws of lilinois, and not in conformity with the laws of the state of Michigan. Although this case has been pending in the courts for some time, this point was not brought to bear until Judge Grove ook it in hand.

DIED OF BAD WHISKY.

Caller Allen's Dead Body Found Lying

"Tailor" Allen is dead. His blind and infirm old wife, who has clung to letter; jury out. him through all, discovered his body told in death yesterday noon. There was no character in the city better known than "Tailor" Allen, especially to the police. For the last- decade his same has been written on the records in police court time and again. Yesgroping her way along a tence on Cal ser street, moaning and sobbing, and sxclaiming "Mike is dead, my poor Mike is dead." He visited the house torner of Calder and Oaks street, where the most abject squalor prevailed. Lying on the floor in the middle of the foom, with his face downward, was the body of the deceased. Coroner Penvarden reviewed the remains, and findng no traces of violence concluded hat it was unnecessary to impanel a Michael Allen was 68 years old. He has lived in Grand Rapids about 30 years. During his palmy days he was the tailor of the town, received big wages and saved considerable money, which he invested in real estate on Calder street. For several years past he has performed no labor, but has lived off the income which he has received from the rent of four houses. He had one son, Jim Allen, who died one year ago yesterday. Jim was regarded as a notorious gambler and desperate fel-low. "Tailor" Allen's estate is said to be worth $10,000. Whisky is said to be the direct cause of his demise.
